GREAT LOSS BY FIRE.

The valuable Steam Mill property situated in Robbinston, owned by Jonathan Williams of this town, was consumed by fire on the night of the 8th instant, together with 300,000 feet of lumber, three houses, store house, large barn, and all the articles necessary for hauling lumber, and carrying on the lumbering business. Said mill contained gang saws, and a single saw. A lath and shingle mill adjoining the said mill was also consumed. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as it was discovered in the upper part of the building, and in a place where it could not possibly have caught fire from the engine.

The loss is $29,000—insurance $5000.

Mr Williams had fitted up this mill at a great expense, and was in hopes of realizing a handsome profit from its operations; but by the hand of the midnight incendiary all his prospects are blasted, and the earnings of years destroyed in an hour.

THE WEATHER. The mercury stood at 100 in the shade in this town on Saturday morning. In the evening we had a very heavy shower, which was refreshing and of great benefit to the vegetable growth. Potatoes and vegetables of every description look well, and every thing indicates so far, a bountiful crop to the husbandman.

A convention of the whigs of Maine was held at Augusta on the 8th inst, to nominate a candidate for Governor. At the second balloting the Hon. David Bronson was nominated.

Mr McKay's amendment when modified, passed the House—here, which looks to the South for party, place and profit—which concedes everything to Southern demands, in order to secure the pecuniary rewards of party subserviency.

THE ROW ON THE FOURTH.—We understand that many of the Irish Catholics about town are very much displeased at the remarks we made on the row which took place on the 4th inst., between a number of them and some Yankees. All we have to say to them or any others that may have taken umbrage at what we said is, that we were not on the ground when the row commenced and only stated what we heard, and if those statements were incorrect, we will, if any one will take the trouble to give us what they may consider a true statement of the disgraceful affair, publish it, so that the public may hear both sides of the question and judge for themselves, which are most in fault, the Catholics or Yankees. "Put the saddle on the right horse," is our motto and ever will be. The Advertiser never shall, while we have ought to do with it, be a medium through which to misrepresent the sayings or doings of any person or persons, knowingly.

☞ We were handed for publication, the following particulars of the destruction of property by the fire which took place in Robbinston on the 8th inst:

GREAT FIRE AT ROBBINSTON.

The valuable Steam Mill property recently erected in that town by Mr. Jonathan Williams of Calais, were, with 300,000 feet of lumber, three dwelling houses, one store house, one large barn, together with all the articles necessary for carrying on the lumbering business on an extensive scale, entirely consumed. The Mill contained gang saws, and a single saw.

A Lath and Shingle Mill adjoining the same was also consumed. The fire is supposed to have been set by some malicious person or persons, as it was first discovered in the upper part of the building, where it could not possibly have caught from the engine. The loss is $80,000—$5000 insurance.

WHO ARE THE PEACE-MAKERS? The public has already answered this question—the Senate preserved the peace. Still the organs, great and small, of the Administration, raise a claim for Mr. Polk, that he was the peace-maker! The National Intelligencer shows how shallow is the pretext for this claim; and thus sums up the argument, by letting us know how little of the honor of its being concluded is due to the President:—

"But now, as a final test to the whole matter, let us, if we can, ascertain the real part which Mr. Polk has acted, in the conclusion of this compromise—a compromise which these fifty-four forties pronounced us traitors for desiring, and which they now discover to be so happy, so right, so grateful to the land at large, that they

ing confidence in the practicability as well as paramount duty of the Missionary enterprise, and carried his large audience forward in sublime and joyful anticipation of the far more interesting changes that might be witnessed in the next third of a century; and, in conclusion, exhorted all patiently to labor on, and hope on, cheered with the certain prospect of a glorious future, and the results un-
